

As a former broadcaster in Philadelphia I have been dismayed to see the effects of the 1996 Act on employment opportunities. Far too many jobs have been eliminated by simulcasting or voice-tracking. I fear that if the proposed changes go through many more jobs will be eliminated.